Foster Care Newcastle

Right now, hundreds of children and young people in your local community need a safe place to call home.

Can you help?

There are many types of foster care and they all matter. You could be a foster carer for a few days a month, emergency support or long-term care.

Please Google search “Foster Care Newcastle” and reach out to an agency in your area.

It doesn't matter who you call or which organisation you approach, you will change a child's life.

If you can't become a foster carer, but would like to help us spread the word, visit www.fostercarenewcastle.org.au
